

9th Annual Tulisoma South Dallas Book Fair and Arts Festival
FREE and open to the public
African American Museum (AAM) at Fair Park
3536 Grand Avenue, Dallas TX 75315 and
South Dallas Cultural Center
3400 S. Fitzhugh Ave Dallas Texas 75210

Percussion Things (Basement Classroom B&C African American Museum)

11:00 am - 12:00 noon

Ages 5 - 12

Percussion Things uses traditional and modern rhythms in this fun and interactive program. Kids participate in several hands-on segments of the show, learning to connect ideas to action through the music and stories. The activity weaves music and stories, rhythms and words, into each imaginative, fun and thought-provoking session.

Melody Bell (Basement Classroom B&C African American Museum)

12:00 noon - 1:00 pm

Ages 5 - 12

Participants will learn a story (story-play) with instruments, songs, dance/circle games and poetry. Audiences become actively involved as they get the opportunity to play traditional Afrikan instruments.

Hat-Making with the Dallas Museum of Art (Basement Classroom B&C African American Museum)

1:00 am - 2:00 pm

Ages 6 & up

Create your own hat inspired by the Dallas Museum of Art's special exhibition, African Headwear: Beyond Fashion.

Black Cinematheque Dallas (Basement Classroom B&C African American Museum)

2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Ages 5 - 12

Children of the Sun Film Festival, two hours of great children's cinema, featuring classic kid's films, African American culture, sing-a-longs, fun interactive activities, prize raffles, popcorn, giveaways and surprises! And best of all, everything is FREE!